NUMBER 239

There are 900,000 deaf mutes in the world. Sixty-three per cent of that number were born blind.

If one can judge from the twitching of some democratic members of congress, they are aching to get a lick at the tariff.

If congress doesn't give that $160,000, "Liberty Enlightening the World" will have to stand in water knee-deep. There is no other hope of keeping her out of mud and water.

Fred Grant mazes from $3,000 to $1,000 a year raising roses. The need of daily bread, and the fact that he has no surplus and can get no appointment in the army or the civil service has given to this pass.

Even when times are hard, when our industries are depressed and when trade is limping, people don't forget to pay tribute to great actors. Irving took $29,241 in New York. For three weeks' work this is very fair wages.

They say there are strong indications of religious revivals this winter all over the country. We hope so. After such an election as we had last month, sober minded people will not doubt that the country needs a revival.

Lord Tennyson, three years ago, wrote a poem on spring for the Youth's Companion for $20 a line, and spring got the worst of it. He has written a poem on Freedom, for the Independent (price not stated), which is enough to make Frodo shiver with laughter.

A Rochester girl does not propose to sacrifice the reputation of the girl of the period. She is worth $75,000, and eloped with a seventy-five cent man. Did any one ever hear of a seventy-five thousand dollar man eloping with a seventy-five cent girl? Men usually have sharper eyes to business than that, and care less for sentiment.

It is to be sincerely hoped that when Mr. Cleveland picks out his cabinet member that he will come to Wisconsin for some material. Although there was a failure in the contract to deliver Wisconsin to the democracy, the state should be recognized when the cabinet is constructed. We hope the president-elect will not forget the post office address of Colonel Vilas.

At the Methodist centennial anniversary which began in Baltimore on Tuesday, the church north and south met for the first time since the war on a common platform. It is to be hoped that as slavery, the cause of the division of the great Methodist body, has ceased to exist, the meeting of the church may be the harbinger of another and complete union of that great body of Protestant Christians.

The Madison Democrat has the courage to say: "The Brand-Leman fraud in Chicago is still under investigation. That the perpetrators, great and small, may be ferreted out and punished by protected sojourners at Joliet is the prayer of honest men." When a democratic paper comes out squarely for the imprisonment of McKinley, the democratic leader, the kingdom of heaven is not far from that journal.

It may be all right for congress to appropriate $25,000 for a monument to the men who perished on the Greely expedition, but a pile of cold marble doesn't warm the hearts or relieve the wants of the wives and children of the men who died in the land of perpetual ice and snow. It would be a good thing—a deed of charity and a religious duty—to give those wives and children $25,000 in money; this would be more comforting than a whole forest full of bronze shafts and monuments of marble.

FOSTER, THE MINISTER.

John W. Foster, the minister who concluded the reciprocity treaty with Spain is one of the most creditable men who have found their way into the diplomatic service during recent years. He is a strong, vigorous lawyer, from southern Indiana, whose success is not due to the old idea that a diplomat must have an extended training in his work, but to the possession of a good address and a large supply of common sense.

He was engaged in native politics in his state for many years, and in 1872 became chairman of the republican state committee of Indiana and managed the campaign in which, while Hendricks was chosen governor in October, the state was carried for Grant by a large majority for a month later. He was at one time minister to Mexico, and did such honorable service in furthering the interests of the United States with that country, that he was transferred to the Russian mission.

Some time ago when President Arthur and Secretary of State Frothingham were looking about for a man to send to Spain, to negotiate the treaty, they fell upon Foster, chiefly for two reasons, (1) because he is a master of the Spanish language; and (2) because when abroad he believes in doing something else beside attending receptions and drawing his salary.

It may be that the senate will not ratify Mr. Foster's treaty, for the reason that he gave Cuba and Porto Rico the advantage in the balance of trade with the United States. However this may be, it doesn't argue against the marked fitness for the trust imposed upon Mr. Foster neither does it speak against his distinguished ability as a lawyer and a diplomat.

THE STATE GRANGE.

The thirteenth annual session of the Wisconsin state grange began in the assembly chamber on Tuesday, the 9th. The officers of the order, who were elected last December and held office for two years are as follows:

Master—S. C. Carr, Milton Junction.
Overseer—Matt Anderson, Pine Bluff.
Lecturer—Aaron Broughton, Albany.
Seward—R. Williams, Hillsborough.
Assistant Seward—W. A. Sprague, Redbank.

Chaplain—S. N. Jones, Fennimore.
Treasurer—Hattie M. Buxley, Neenah.
Secretary—H. E. Hazley, Neenah.
Gate Keeper—Enoch Wood, Black Earth.
Pomona—Mrs. S. C. Carr, Milton Junction.
Flora—Mrs. Aaron Broughton, Albany.
Ceres—Mrs. E. E. Hazley, Neenah.
Lady Assistant Seward—Mrs. H. E. Sprague, Redbank.

There are about 4,000 members in the state and a gain of 238 during the past year. The treasurer reported that the balance in the treasury December 1883 was $900.61, that $3,259.98 were the total receipts of the year, $2,700.26 the total disbursements, and the balance at the date of the report, $549.72. In the lecture fund, the total receipts were $231.72; disbursements, $83.93; balance, $147.79. John Whitel, S. C. Carr and R. D. Frost, constituting the executive committee, rendered a report, embodying a statement of the business of the state agency in Milwaukee, during the year ending Dec. 1, 1884. The sales in the year, including accounts, amounted to $11,682.46; assets at close of the year, $5,612.89; loss, $597.33; goods sold, $63,472.97; expenses, $5,770.51.

A FALSE STATEMENT CORRECTED.

Mr. Blaine says of Thomas A. Hendricks in his "Twenty Years in Congress."

"Mr. Hendricks had served in the house of representatives from 1834 to 1836. He was but thirty-two years of age when first chosen, and his record in the house had not prepared the public to expect the extraordinary ability which he displayed as a senator. He was in the full maturity of the powers when he took his seat, and he proved able, watchful and active in the discharge of his public duties. He was always at hand, was well informed on all questions, and debated with ability and rapidity. His report and consideration in the senate, it was in fact, a masterpiece of eloquence, and had the friendship and confidence of the members."

Mr. Blaine has here given the lie to all attempts in his behalf during the late campaign.—Madison Democrat.
Will the Madison Democrat, for the sake of truth and common fairness, and simple justice to Mr. Blaine, please tell its readers by what authority it credits the unjustified lines in the above extract to Mr. Blaine? Did the Democrat manufacture, for doctory's sake, the last sentence in that extract, or has its credulity been imposed upon?

Now that our friend, the enemy, may know the truth, the Gazette takes upon itself the task of telling the Democrat that Mr. Blaine never said in his "Twenty Years in Congress," or anywhere else, or at any time, or under any circumstances, that Hendricks "was in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war, and had the friendship and confidence of the members of the senate," for Mr. Blaine is too just to lie, and knows Hendricks too well to be led into the error of crediting the democratic vice president with loyalty during the war. But the Gazette would make the charge that the Democrat made up that sentence purposely to mislead its readers and to do Mr. Blaine an injustice. If the Democrat desires to know what Mr. Blaine does say in his "Twenty Years" about Mr. Hendricks, we refer it to pp. 593-3 of that book. That knocks the sentiment out of the extract which the Democrat credits to Mr. Blaine.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

The Recorder, in a paragraph relating to the treaty with the Nicaraguan government for the right of way for a ship canal across that state was inadvertently led into an error. That paper speaks of the canal as being about 150 miles long, "100 of which being already completed," in fact the whole length of the proposed canal is 151 miles long, and no part of it is completed. Lake Nicaragua is situated on the summit level of the ridge of land separating the Caribbean sea from the Pacific ocean. It is about forty miles wide at its greatest width, and sufficiently deep to float the largest ships. The San Juan river, which flows from the lake and empties into the Caribbean sea, is about one hundred miles long and during periods of high water is navigable for that bottom, and carries of light draught. At other seasons it is not navigable for any class of boats for more than one-half its length. The river banks from the lake down to Castillo rapids, or about one-half the distance to the sea, are in most places high and firm, and on that part of the river slack water navigation by means of locks and dams is probably practicable, but from the rapids east, the river is sluggish and runs through low marshy land which would have to be avoided by means of an independent canal. In fact, competent engineers have expressed the opinion that on account of the difficulty of controlling the surplus water during seasons of flood that an independent canal would be necessary for the whole distance from the lake to the sea. The ground west of the lake descends gradually to the Pacific ocean. It is firm and well adapted for the purposes of a canal which would require no very deep excavations.

The importance of this treaty to the United States cannot be overestimated. The route across the isthmus which it crosses is undoubtedly the best, if not the only practicable one known for a ship canal, connecting the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. The money already expended by M. DeLesseps on the Panama canal, would, had it been judiciously used on the Nicaragua route, have opened a highway between the two oceans for the commerce of the world, and yet M. DeLesseps has hardly commenced his herculean task.

Lake Nicaragua is one of the most beautiful sheets of water in the world. It is about forty miles wide and one hundred and fifty long. Its banks are covered with semi-tropical vegetation. They rise gradually from the lake and on the east have a background of snow capped mountains which are distinctly visible from all parts of the lake. From the perfectly clear waters of the lake numerous islands like pyramids of flowers, lift their heads so high that they are lost in the clouds. A large portion of the territory is rich in all the products of the temperate and semi-tropical zones, and the building of a canal across it will open a field of enterprise as inviting as any on the continent.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Edmund Yates—The Shadow of the War—Samuel Taylor Coleridge—Indian History for Young Folks—Harper's Young People.

EDMUND YATES.
This is the memoir of "a man of the world," or "fifty years of London life." Mr. Yates has acquired considerable reputation as a novelist, and also as publisher of a society journal in London. It is rich reading, because it is full of interesting gossip, and gives one much amusing information regarding the leading characters of London, especially those who are long to the literary world. The book is printed in handsome style by the Harper's, price $1.75.
For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

THE SHADOW OF THE WAR.

Jansen, McClurg & Co., of Chicago, have just published in an attractive style, a startling book entitled "The Shadow of War." It is a tale of reconstruction times. Party heats and exigencies have long imposed to color the events of the strange epoch and to shift its responsibility. The anonymous author resists in the midst of these exciting scenes; and he writes with a personal knowledge of the events and their causes. His task is that of a chronicler, rather than an advocate. The sins and errors of both parties and both races are portrayed with equal force, and the shares of responsibility are left where the facts in each case place them. The lynching and intimidation of negroes, the retaliatory destruction of property, the bloody race collisions, the midnight rides, the deluge of rifle clubs and other secret military societies—all are sketched with a vigor which compels the breathless interest of the reader. Price $1.25.
For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

COLETRIDGE.

The Harpers have just published the life of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, uniform with the "English men of Letters." Everyone who knows anything of English literature knows the value and interest in such a biography of Coleridge. It is one of the best books of this remarkably fine series of the lives of the great men of letters. Price 75 cents.
For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

INDIAN HISTORY.

The Harpers have published for the holidays, and especially for the young people, an Indian history, by Francis S. Drake. It will have an attractive book for the young. The cover is peculiarly pleasing in design; print and paper leave nothing to be desired; and there is a wealth of illustration lavished in the interpretation of the text. There is an abundance of interesting reading matter in the book for young folks as well as old, for such a history of our aborigines.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE.

Among the literature for the young, published in this country, there is no publication that surpasses "Harper's Young People." The volume before us is that of 1884, richly bound in ornamental cloth. It contains over 700 illustrations, and is uniform with "Harper's Young People" for 1881, 1882, and 1883, and is sold at the low price of $3.50.
For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and by James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

BAD FAILURE OF A BANK AT SYRACUSE, NEW YORK.

Small Chance for the Depositors to Get Anything Out of the Wreck—Deposition in front of a Federal Court of the Cause of the Trouble.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 11.—The private banking house of Wilkinson & Co., made an assignment Wednesday. Rumors affecting the stability of the firm have been in circulation for some days, and have had the effect to prepare the community for the announcement. Notwithstanding this preparation of public mind, the closing of their doors created a deep feeling of anxiety, which was continued by the inability to ascertain the exact state of the firm's affairs. The creditors aggregate $2,424,887, of which the city of Syracuse is credited with $2,228,033; Onondaga county, $45,500.77; the American Co-operative Relief association, $5,170.38; the New York state asylum for idiots, and the custodial asylum at Newark, $12,734.94; the Syracuse Water company, $9,550.25. The amount on deposit in the bank belonging to the city is covered by the preference; as is also the amount due to the city of Onondaga. The preference covers all amounts due charitable institutions, and all trust funds of every nature.

The liabilities of the firm will aggregate from $450,000 to $500,000. This includes $345,000 which is due to depositors, of which amount $277,000 is on individual deposits. The assets consist mainly of discounted paper, and amount to $1,403,033, of which $30,000 is considered as cash. It is probable that the total assets will not aggregate over $150,000. If this be the case, the depositors will stand a slim show of getting their money. Among the Syracuse firms interested are Loos, Kaufman & Co., Strauss & Co., S. D. Hoffman, Hawkins & Goodrich, M. Britton & Son, and Andrews Bros. None of these deposits exceed $3,000.

The embarrassment of the Wilkinson bank dates back about a year and a half, and had investors began to trouble them. This weakness has continued and was intensified by the depression in the iron trade and the failure of the mills at Godfrey's works. The loss in stocks are said to have been upward of $50,000, and the liability on account of iron mills is $38,000. The Metropolitan bank was their New York correspondent up to the time of that bank's failure. Then the Chicago and back and E. K. Willard, of New York, became correspondents, and have so remained up to this time. Nothing could be ascertained in regard to these relations. At the clearing house it was said that the bank was cleared satisfactorily Tuesday, and as far as known nothing is due the Syracuse banks by them.

Attached by Creditors. HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 11.—H. Goldschmidt & Co., wholesale dry goods dealers, have been attached by creditors. Liabilities, $140,000.

Oil on Troubled Waters. BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 11.—W. & F. H. Whittemore, oil dealers, have failed. Liabilities, $140,000.

Some Plenary Council Decrees. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 11.—The press published the most important changes made at the plenary council at Baltimore, which have not before been made public. The council has decided that the United States will be made rectors and not movable at the option of the bishops. Each bishop shall appoint a court of consultors composed of six priests, one member holding the office for life. The court shall have full power to try all cases of misconduct on the part of the priests. Instead of the bishops of a province sending the names of their candidates for election to vacant bishoprics upon the death, or resignation, of a bishop, the rectors and consultors meet and send the names of their candidate for the vacancy to Rome. Their choice of the candidates will probably receive the approbation. The bishops of the province, however, if they object to one or more of the priests' nominees, may send a separate list. Each list meets with equal consideration at the propaganda.

A Missing Man Reappears. NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Col. Charles B. Morton, an assistant postmaster of Brooklyn, who mysteriously disappeared from that city about six months ago, returned Wednesday morning, and was mysteriously about 10 o'clock in the morning he entered the office of United States District Attorney Terry, accompanied by his lawyer. Col. Morton told assistant district attorney Angelo that he had learned of the fact that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, and that he had come to surrender himself. Marshal Tate brought out the warrant, and the whole party went before United States Commissioner Allen. The charge against Col. Morton was that he had falsified the payrolls of the postoffice to the extent of $137. He pleaded not guilty and gave bail in $1,000 to appear for examination.

Considering the Treatment of "Crooks." CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—The conference of prison wardens and other officers of prisons, held at the city of Chicago, continued throughout the United States, assembled at the Grand Pacific hotel Wednesday. Between forty and fifty officials were present, besides a number of guests who have a general interest in the subject. The session was called to order by Superintendent Folson, of the Chicago penitentiary. The committee on permanent organization reported, offering the names of the following gentlemen to its officers: Michael J. Cassidy, warden of the eastern penitentiary at Philadelphia, chairman; T. H. Winsor, of the state board of charities, and John C. Whitson, of the Boston reform school, for secretaries. The report was adopted, and a program was laid for the discussions agreed upon, and then the conference adjourned for the day.

A Bengal Tiger Loose. DAYTON, Ohio, Dec. 11.—A Bengal tiger escaped from its cage in S. E. Barrett's menagerie Tuesday, and was found next morning on the farm of William Leschur, five miles from this city. The animal had killed three hogs and was finally shot by Leschur.

Guaranteed Death in a Street Car. CLEVELAND, Mass., Dec. 11.—A young woman riding in a street-car Wednesday morning sat next to an old woman, who threw down a burning cigarette. The young woman's dress caught fire and she died before the flames could be extinguished.

Depression of Trade in England. LONDON, Dec. 11.—Lord Salisbury, the Conservative leader, has written a letter, urging the government to institute an inquiry into the cause of the existing depression in trade. He declares that as compared with this, all the other questions of the day are trivial.

The Congo Conference. BERLIN, Dec. 11.—The committee of the west African conference have agreed upon the proposals guaranteeing free navigation of the Niger and its tributaries, but have postponed consideration of the question of the neutrality of the Niger and Congo regions.

United States Minister Kasson has presented to the committee of the conference the report of the committee on the Congo and the Niger basins, but of the large tract of inland territory naturally tributary to those rivers, including all the small rivers and proposed canals, forming the navigable system of that part of Africa. The scheme is bitterly opposed by France.

Came to Life on the Dissecting Table. GUMM, BARNSTON, Mass., Dec. 11.—There is much excitement at Barnston, over a report that the body of a well known young lady, Miss Edwille Newman, who was supposed to have died here in 1873, was exhumed on the night of burial by medical students, and was found to be alive. The lady came to life while on the dissecting table, because taken and has since been confined to her bed. The story is credited to Dr. Worth Wright, of Barnston, one of those concerned in the grave robbery.

Editor McLean Acknowledges a Kidnaper. CINCINNATI, Dec. 11.—When John R. McLean, of Cincinnati, was married, a few days ago, the first congratulations he received were from the night messenger boys of the Western Union telegraph office. Wednesday afternoon the boys received a charming letter from the bride, thanking them for their kindness, and at the same time enclosing a check to gladness the hearts of the little fellows.

There are now only ten prisoners confined in the Rock county jail.

The militia companies rally at their respective armories this evening for drill.

Janesville Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar, assemble in Masonic hall this evening.

"Cyrus and Alexander" received at Sutherland's. Chautauquans will please call for them.

Don't forget the sale at McCullagh & Galbraith's to-morrow. Gloves and handkerchiefs a specialty. Big bargains.

Mr. Michael Hogan, of Boone, Iowa, is in the city, visiting his brother, Marshal John Hogan, and other relatives and friends.

The Woman's Mission circle of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. S. T. Griswold to-morrow afternoon, at half past two o'clock.

The trial of Richard Barry in the municipal court was concluded last evening, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

"A Mountain Pick" will not appear in Janesville, Laura Dainty having cancelled her engagement at the opera house several weeks ago. There are now no announcements booked for the opera house for this year.

The honorary members of the Janesville Guard will hold a meeting in the Grange's armory this evening at eight o'clock for the purpose of perfecting an organization, and transacting such other business as may come before them.

Some 500 cords of various kinds of wood have been received by Gately & King. In the large stock is some of the best maple ever offered for sale in this city; and what is still more important, the prices, like the wood, will give full satisfaction.

The basement walls of the Jeffers block are now up on a level with Milwaukee street bridge, and the first floor joists are being placed in position. When this is completed, bricklaying will be commenced on the first story of the building, unless cold weather prevents.

If you desire to spend a pleasant social evening, attend the annual dance of Water Witch engine company No. 2, at Apollo hall this evening. Smith & Corlies orchestra will furnish the music, and Messrs Carter & Eastman will provide the supper. The public will be cordially welcomed.

There is no such firm as Strickler & Miles, but there is such a company as the Janesville Ray Tool company, which is gaining a wide reputation for manufacturing the best hay carrier and fork there are in the world. It is comforting to that company the way orders are coming in from every quarter. The carrier and fork deserve the popularity they have gained.

The reflection of three large fires were seen by people in this city at an early hour last evening. One almost due north, another northwest, and one west. The reflection in the northwest was quite bright and indicated that an extensive fire was raging in that direction. We have not heard anything definite from the locality of the fires, and cannot therefore say what was destroyed.

The Gazette is indebted to Messrs Merry & Treat for a basket of eggs, preserved by their patent compound. The eggs are warmer, fresher, larger, and handsomer than when first gathered from the hen.

The compound is a first class article, and the use of it guarantees four year old eggs a better flavor than the year's crop. It has a faculty of restoring old eggs and preserving new ones, try it.

The Baptist "sale" at Cannon's hall was concluded last evening, and was a most gratifying success to all participating, and especially to the ladies having the sale in charge. Most of the articles were disposed of, and a handsome sum of money must have been realized for the building fund of the new church. The attendance on both evenings was quite large, and all the visitors were pleased with the cordial reception and hospitable treatment while making purchases.

Last evening Mr. Nicholas Morelle, a farmer residing nine miles west of this city in the town of Newark, fell from his horse in his barn down upon a cultivator standing upon the floor, inflicting injuries which must have caused his immediate death. He was discovered dead by his aged father evidently sometime after the fatal accident. Mr. Morelle leaves a wife and several children. Mrs. Morelle is a niece of the late Mrs. Rousseau and a cousin of Mrs. J. J. Pierson. —Bellevue Press of Tuesday.

A change was made in the running of freight trains on the Northwestern road Monday, that makes this city the end of a division. Heretofore the run of train cars has been from Janesville to Fort Howard, but now this run has been divided, so that cars are changed in this city. Much more freight is headed on the north end, and for two trains running from Janesville to this city but one will be run from here to Fort Howard. Again on account of the grades across heavier trains can be drawn from Fort Howard to this city than can be continued south. The only difference to the employees is that their stopping will be at Fond du Lac instead of elsewhere.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

Mr. John Wilkinson, of Mineral Point, the young man who met with an accident in this city on the 15th of last October, while attempting to board the locomotive upon which he was the fire man, by which he lost both feet, and who has remained at his boarding house on the corner of High and West Bluff streets since that time, was taken to his home in Mineral Point last evening. The young man has had a very hard time with his injured limbs, but under the skillful care of the company's surgeon, and the kind attention he has received, the wounds are gradually healing, and it is sincerely hoped that he will not long be confined to his bed. The train was backed down to his boarding house last evening, and young Wilkinson was taken upon his cot, and carried into the car.

The members of the Janesville cavalry company held a business meeting at the Rides armory last evening. Mr. John G. Saxe, the president of the organization, occupied the chair and Mr. O. H. Brand was chosen secretary.

The proposition made by the Bow-er City Rifles to rent the company their armory for a drill room, was accepted. A committee on permanent organization and membership was appointed, and Wednesday evening of each week was fixed upon as the regular drill night. Considerable routine business was transacted, and every member of the company was appointed a committee of one to solicit names for membership. Captain R. F. Moore, who has seen considerable service in the United States army, is doing all he can to make a success of this organization, and it is the wish of all that he and his associates will fully succeed.

Backs' America salute.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by F. Sherer & Co.

Woman's Suffrage.

Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, the eloquent advocate of woman suffrage, will be in Janesville on Friday and Saturday, December 19th and 20th, and will speak in Lippin's hall on Friday evening taking as her subject, "The Enfranchisement of Woman a National necessity." Single admissions will be 25 cents and family tickets 50 cents. Her subject for Saturday evening is not announced. It is earnestly hoped that she will have a large audience. The Hoopeson (Ill.) Journal says:—"The lecture of Mrs. Gougar on Woman Suffrage, in Opera Hall, Monday evening, was indeed a rare treat, and her logical argument knocked the weak-kneed gentry clear off their pins, and those on the fence greatly sided with the woman suffrage side. Mrs. Gougar is a bright, aggressive lady, ever ready to step on any coat-tail or knock the chip off any shoulder on the temperance or woman suffrage question. She is a whole team with a 'yaller' dog under the wagon. At the close of her interesting lecture she invited anybody in the audience who had —A. O. Fridland has added a wagon-shop to his business and should have a board patronage.

—Miss Jennie Dunn is visiting friends at Winona and St. Paul.

—Mrs. Carrie Adams, of Dakota, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. M. Jordan.

—Hon. Orrin Bacon and wife, of Monticello, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bacon last week.

—Fred Borden came down from St. Paul Saturday, his mother returning with him. Fred has just been through a case of typhoid fever and looks as if he had a close call.

—A. C. Whitford, who is at present making his home at Nekech, Kansas, arrived in town Saturday, and visited friends until Tuesday. He is looking well.

—Du Lac Lodge, I. O. O. F., was visited Monday evening by D. D. G. M. Kenyon and Messrs Manning and Nelson of Janesville.

—Mr. E. F. Welch returned from his Minnesota trip last Saturday.

—The heavy snow and heavy rain has made the roads almost impassable in this vicinity.

—Mr. E. F. Welch has some choice Poland China pigs for sale. Call and see them.

—There was a pleasant social gathering of the young people of this community at the home of Mr. Eugene Ackley, on Tuesday evening of last week. There were about thirty-five present, and a most enjoyable time was spent by all.

—Miss Della Butts, of West Hall, Ill., is the guest of Miss Eva Welch during her vacation.

—Mr. Ned Bundy, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity during the past week or so, returned to his home in Racine, Wis., on Friday last.

—A comparatively large number of teams loaded with hogs passed through this village last Thursday and Friday for the Danian market. Messrs Johnson & Clough, of that place, who believe shipped six cars of hogs to Chicago, during the latter part of the week.

—Wanted—By Mr. James Cutler, of this village, "corn in the ear." The gentleman in question has scales convenient for weighing, and will pay full market price for the same.

—We have some one ought to "stand treat" for a wedding that took place in this vicinity some two or three months ago. Who is it George?

—The intended wedding visit in North Johnson on last Friday evening by some of the young people of this vicinity was indefinitely postponed on account of the extremely unfavorable weather.

—Odds are cut inviting all those who love to "trip the light fantastic" to assemble at the Farmers hotel, Danien, on Friday evening of this week. Wright & O'Connor orchestra will furnish the music.

—We understand that a wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Alfred Woodman, of South Grove, on Sunday last, when their daughter Rhoda was united in marriage to Mr. Elmer Wise also a resident of South Grove. As we had no present in regard to the wedding we must necessarily fail to particularize and will simply say that their friends in this vicinity wish them much joy.

—There has been but comparatively little talk raised in this section of the country as yet, but the few that have tried it seem to be well pleased with the results of their experiments, our praise so soon to be peculiarly well adapted for the raising of the weed, and there will doubtless be a considerable acreage of this in the vicinity the coming year, than heretofore. Most of the crops of the present year we understand have already been sold; but two have come under our hands, one from the farm of Mr. J. J. Ford, and the other from the farm of Mr. J. J. Ford, both delivered in the bundle; and that of Mr. John Wetmore's, four acres at 10 cents per pound, delivered in the same way. Both sold to Janesville buyers we believe.

Don't neglect your cough! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will quickly cure it and prevent consumption.

Clinton.

—Saturday last was a warm wet day, with consequent muddy roads. Sunday wet and cold.

—A. B. Rogers has a bad leg from a kick by a horse. Dr. Palmer called to examine him last Saturday; fears of a paralyzed limb are entertained.

—We now have two skating rinks running afternoons and evenings, and well patronized, who says it is not times?

—Our taxes are to be collected by the Citizens bank on and after Dec. 15th.

—Another of those pleasant social gatherings for which Clinton is so noted came off last Friday evening, the occasion being the ball given out of our esteemed fellow citizen A. W. Stutzack, Esq. About forty of his neighbors took advantage of the kindness of that gentleman to go in upon him; and when the dance was over, the guests were well entertained. Brother Stutzack has a fine reputation. As a soldier during the late unpleasantness and as a citizen of Clinton, both before and since that event, he has held many positions of honor and trust among us. "Lads may be wags."

—The merits of the several candidates for United States senator are somewhat feebly discussed among us with the leanings toward Colonel Spooner.

—Several of our citizens have determined to visit New Orleans during the winter.

—M. G. Weaver has recently purchased some full blooded Holstein cattle of fine proportions.

—Miss Phoebe Bailey is spending a week visiting friends in Racine county.

—Wagon—Five or six more post offices in Clinton to supply hungry democrats.

—Daniel Egery, of Turtle, was buried in our Clinton cemetery, Dec. 3d.

—R. W. Cheater was in Clinton last week purchasing holiday goods.

—Now that we have been laying another taste of what muddy roads are, we can't be thinking how much more agreeable a track of gravel, such as the editor of the Herald has been contemplating for would be. Rock county should and might have better roads.

—Saturday Court and O'Connell have their opening of holiday goods.

—Complaining of dull times, but that a great extent, is relieved by the extremely low prices of all kinds of merchandise.

—Sunday was one of those cold, windy, bleak days, such as no one cares to see. The weather caught a sudden and severe cold as did many of our citizens.

—Apples, although now plenty are liable to not last long, as they are fast disappearing through decay.

—Thomas Shiloh, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, celebrated his 84th birthday, December 5th.

—Mr. Fred Reulhime, after an absence of some four years in Chicago, returns to Clinton and will have a position in Mr. H. Dobbin's store.

—P. O. Richmond, of Madison, lectured to a small audience in Union hall on December 2d, and after the lecture organized a prohibition club, composed of seventeen members, eight or nine of whom were voters. What a sea of evils of intemperance was very good; but when he struck off onto politics, he made some wild and extravagant remarks, and his party coincide with sober facts.

—Rev. S. D. Foot and D. G. Cheever were present, and talked back and forth, and questions that the lecturer failed to answer.

—Edwards' Balm of Life is sold by Palmer & Stevens. Trial bottle free.
